IMPORTANT INFORMATION

All applications should read the entire IFCS Statute. Of particular interest for applicants, we draw your attention to the following points:

1. In the Chapter B of the IFCS Statute you will find the information about IFCS members, their qualifications, rights and duties.
 - a. Different classification of members, their descriptions, qualifications and requirements are set forth in Section B.2.
 - b. Rules on voting privileges are set forth in sections B.1.3 through B.1.9 and in Section B.2.
 - c. Rules on who may apply and potential conflicts between organizations for membership are addressed throughout Section B.2.
 - d. Documentation required with the Membership Application is set forth in Section B.3. When original documents exist in a language other than English, all documents must be translated into English.
 - i. Declaration of acceptance of IFCS Constitution, its mission and purpose
 - ii. Copies of Statutes, Constitution, By-Laws and other legal documents that serve as evidence of the organization's legal structure and status
 - iii. Copy of the applicant's competition rules and procedures for each sport it manages. (English translation may be submitted after application provided a signed and certified statement is submitted expressing that such regulations are congruent with IFCS regulations for each sport represented. The English translation must be submitted within the first year of the organization's probationary period.)
 - iv. Names, titles, email addresses, postal addresses and telephone numbers of at least the three, key executive of the organization, including, but not limited to the Secretary and President.
 - v. Organization data
 - Certificate or other documentation providing active legal standing and authorization for filing this application relative to local, regional, and/or national jurisdictions, as appropriate
 - Number of cynological sports managed under the applicant's umbrella during the past three years.
 - Number of individual members of the organization, if any, and a list of such members names at the time of application
 - Number of sub-organizations or related organizations, if any, and their names
 - vi. Sports environment in organization's jurisdiction
 - Names of other organizations who promulgate rules for the sport for which applicant seeks to represent in their application to IFCS
 - Brief overview of each organization who promulgates rules in competition with applicant listed above (i.e., description, size relative to applicant, number of events and members, etc.)

2. Chapter F stipulates the rules on annual Membership Fees. At the time of this version of the application, the rate is 200 Euros per annum, payable on January 1, of each year, but is subject to change for future years. An invoice showing proper amount will be provided with notification of acceptance.
 - a. Fees for multiple years may be prepaid; on the occasion that dues may be modified for a future term included in such prepayment, an additional assessment shall be made for any increase.
 - b. The Council may set a processing fee to cover the costs associated with wire transfers or other modes of payment. Such fee shall be included with any payments to IFCS by the organization, unless otherwise stipulated at time of billing. Such fee shall be set forth on the billing invoice.

1. We are share aim and purposes of international sports Olympic movement and mission of the International Federation of Cynological Sport (IFCS) in so doing.
2. We declare the inclusion of cynological kinds of sport into the program of the Olympic Games as the main goal of our cooperation.
3. We declare that every person has the right to go in for cynological sports out of dependence on racial, national and religious belonging, and the breed of the dog.
4. We are of the belief that nobody has the right to limit the participation in sports cynological competitions by reason of breed of the dog, availability or absence of pedigree documents and also pedigree registration in any kennel club. The competitions with such limitation cannot be considered as sport and are not concerned to the events of the international sporting cynological movement. At the same time, we recognize the expedience and validity of holding the tests and other zootechnical steps for support and appointing of valuable working characteristics necessary for practical use of the dogs in every humanity's service.
5. Cynological sport is a part of world culture. We respect cultural traditions of every country and support development of national kinds of sport for people with dogs.
6. We build our co-operation on the basis of rights and legal interests of every participant of international sporting cynological movement.
7. The culmination of development of the international sporting movement is an inclusion of cynological kinds of sport into the program of the Olympic Games and regular holding of World Cynological Games.
8. The present Declaration is open for signing by any national sporting cynological organization. The organization which has signed this Declaration becomes the participant of the international sporting cynological movement and has to observe the principles of the movement.
9. The text of the present Declaration is drawn up in English and may be translated into other languages. When translated, the meaning of the text in English prevails should questions arise.
